

Professional.

Drs. Lighthill & Reid

Will Return to

WHEELING,

On Monday Morning, Feb. 1st,

Wednesday Evening, February 2d.

Where they can be consulted during day time and evening at the

McLure House,

ON

NASAL CATARRH

AND ITS EFFECT UPON

THE SYSTEM.

(Cataract) consists of inflammation beginning and extending upward into the nose and downward into the throat, and causing a feeling of heaviness in the head, and a feeling of constriction in the throat, and a feeling of burning in the eyes, and a feeling of itching in the nose, and a feeling of sneezing in the throat, and a feeling of coughing in the chest, and a feeling of shortness of breath, and a feeling of weakness in the limbs, and a feeling of dizziness in the head, and a feeling of nausea in the stomach, and a feeling of indigestion in the bowels, and a feeling of constipation in the urinary system, and a feeling of weakness in the reproductive system, and a feeling of general debility in the entire system, and a feeling of depression in the mind, and a feeling of anxiety in the heart, and a feeling of fear in the soul, and a feeling of hopelessness in the future, and a feeling of despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

helplessness in the present, and a feeling of

despair in the present, and a feeling of

The Intelligencer.

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE,

REGULAR SESSION,

TUESDAY, JANUARY 26th, 1899.

Prayer by Rev. John Moffat.

A message from the House, by the Speaker, announced the passage of the House bill relating to cemeteries. Read the first time.

Mr. Price, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported a bill for the purpose of making a donation to the West Virginia Central Railway. The substitute was adopted.

Mr. Carter presented the petition of Harrison Sinsel, and 55 others, citizens of Taylor county, praying that Rev. J. S.

Solomon may be relieved from taking the "Teacher's Test Oath." Referred to the Committee of Education.

The Senate bill for the relief of John T. Sinsler, of Raleigh county, was ordered to engrossment.

The following resolutions were adopted:

By Mr. Drummond:—That the Committee on Finance inquire into the expediency of allowing the Board of Public

Works further authority to audit claims against the State of Virginia.

By Mr. Hoke:—That the Committee on the Judiciary inquire into the expediency of the formation of corporations as to allow companies formed for the purposes of mining, manufacturing, and other industries, to hold larger quantities of land than prescribed by said act.

By Mr. Burley:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill allowing

U. H. Knight, of Marion county, further time to give bond, as County Surveyor.

By Mr. Davis:—That so much of the Governor's message as relates to free schools be referred to the Committee on Education.

By Mr. Hoke:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of the formation of corporations as

to allow companies formed for the

purposes of mining, manufacturing,

and other industries, to hold larger

quantities of land than prescribed by

said act.

By Mr. Burley:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of reporting a bill allowing

U. H. Knight, of Marion county, further time to give bond, as County Surveyor.

By Mr. Davis:—That so much of the

Governor's message as relates to free

schools be referred to the Committee

on Education.

By Mr. Hoke:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of the formation of corporations as

to allow companies formed for the

purposes of mining, manufacturing, who claims as township treasurer to have been robbed of between $700 and $800 school funds.

Mr. Martin presented a letter to acknowledge this petition.

A message from the Senate communicated a joint resolution, asking Congress to grant a donation of land in aid of the West Virginia Central Railroad. Adopted.

The following bills were passed:

House bill to amend certain taxes to Jesse Carney of Jackson county.

House bill for payment of the expenses of the Committee to investigate the affairs of the Hospital for the Insane.

House bill to amend the Charter of the Village of Leatherwood.

The hour of 11 o'clock having arrived, the Senate appeared in the chamber and the usual formality of counting and announcing the docket took place.

The Senate having retired, the Speaker announced the following Special Committee on the boundary between

State and Missouri. Members: Mr.

Flick, Dils, Patnam, Hervey and Jacob, of Hampshire.

Adjourned.

The following resolutions were adopted:

By Mr. Drummond:—That the Committee on Finance inquire into the expediency of allowing the Board of Public

Works further authority to audit claims

against the State of Virginia.

By Mr. Hoke:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of the formation of corporations as

to allow companies formed for the

purposes of mining, manufacturing,

and other industries, to hold larger

quantities of land than prescribed by

said act.

By Mr. Burley:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of reporting a bill allowing

U. H. Knight, of Marion county, further time to give bond, as County Surveyor.

By Mr. Davis:—That so much of the

Governor's message as relates to free

schools be referred to the Committee

on Education.

By Mr. Hoke:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of the formation of corporations as

to allow companies formed for the

purposes of mining, manufacturing,

and other industries, to hold larger

quantities of land than prescribed by

said act.

By Mr. Burley:—That the Committee

on the Judiciary inquire into the expedi-

ency of reporting a bill allowing

U. H. Knight, of Marion county, further time to give bond, as County Surveyor.

By Mr. Davis:—That so much of the

CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.

Mr. Wilson presented the credentials of Charles Sumner, Senator elect from Massachusetts, which were read.

Mr. Sherman said the Committee on Finance had carefully considered the bill to reorganize the Treasury Department, and fearing that they could not report a bill that would meet the views of the Committee, they had decided to report a resolution providing for the appointment of a Joint Committee of three Senators and five Representatives, with leave to sit during the recess of the Forty-First Congress, to examine and report upon the expediency of reorganizing the civil service in the several departments of the Government, and to report upon the expediency of increasing the efficiency of the service.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Morrill, of Maine, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the pension appropriation bill, with amendments for reducing the appropriation from $10,000,000 to $9,000,000, and for increasing the pension from ten millions to nine millions, and for the appropriation for other pensions, from thirteen millions to ten millions. The bill was read and the appropriation for the Academy appropriation bill, with a slight amendment.

Mr. Rice introduced a bill to incorporate a Southern Express company, which was referred to the Committee on

Commerce. The Senate took up a bill in relation to the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad. During the discussion which followed, Mr. Corbett said the debate had satisfied him that the passage of the bill was not required by any legal or equitable obligations of the Government to the Central Branch company, and he withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Conkling then offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute, proposing a Southern Express company,

which was referred to the Committee on

Commerce. The Senate took up a bill

in relation to the Central Branch of the

Union Pacific Railroad. During the

discussion which followed, Mr. Cor-

bett said the debate had satisfied him

that the passage of the bill was not required by any legal or equitable ob-

ligations of the Government to the Central Branch company, and he withdrew

his amendment.

Mr. Conkling then offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute, pro-

posing a Southern Express company,

which was referred to the Committee on

Commerce. The Senate took up a bill

in relation to the Central Branch of the

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.

Three burglars, with stolen property in their possession valued at $3,000, were arrested by Capt. Jordan yesterday, and on Sunday evening, three others were captured by Sergeant Woodward and his assistants. All these persons who are supposed to be members of a regular burglarious gang, were committed to await trial.

During Saturday night between $2,000 and $3,000 worth of silks were stolen by burglars from a store in Chatham street, and the thieves escaped with their plunder.

In the Board of Health, yesterday an ordinance forbidding the sale of kerosene oils and other burning fluids, unless they are contained in glass containers, Fahrenheit's, and not evolve explosive material at a temperature of 100 degrees, was adopted.

The typhoid fever cases reported under thorough control.

Of the 213,686 immigrants who arrived last year, 65,714 remained in this State; 34,625 went to Illinois; 13,115 to Utah, and 5 to New Mexico, while all the lately rebellious States received an average of only 100 each.

The Lawrence Massachusetts American, General Banks district, of the 23d inst., referring to controversy with the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst., referring to controversy with

the General Banks district, of the 23d

inst.,